The Life of Christ

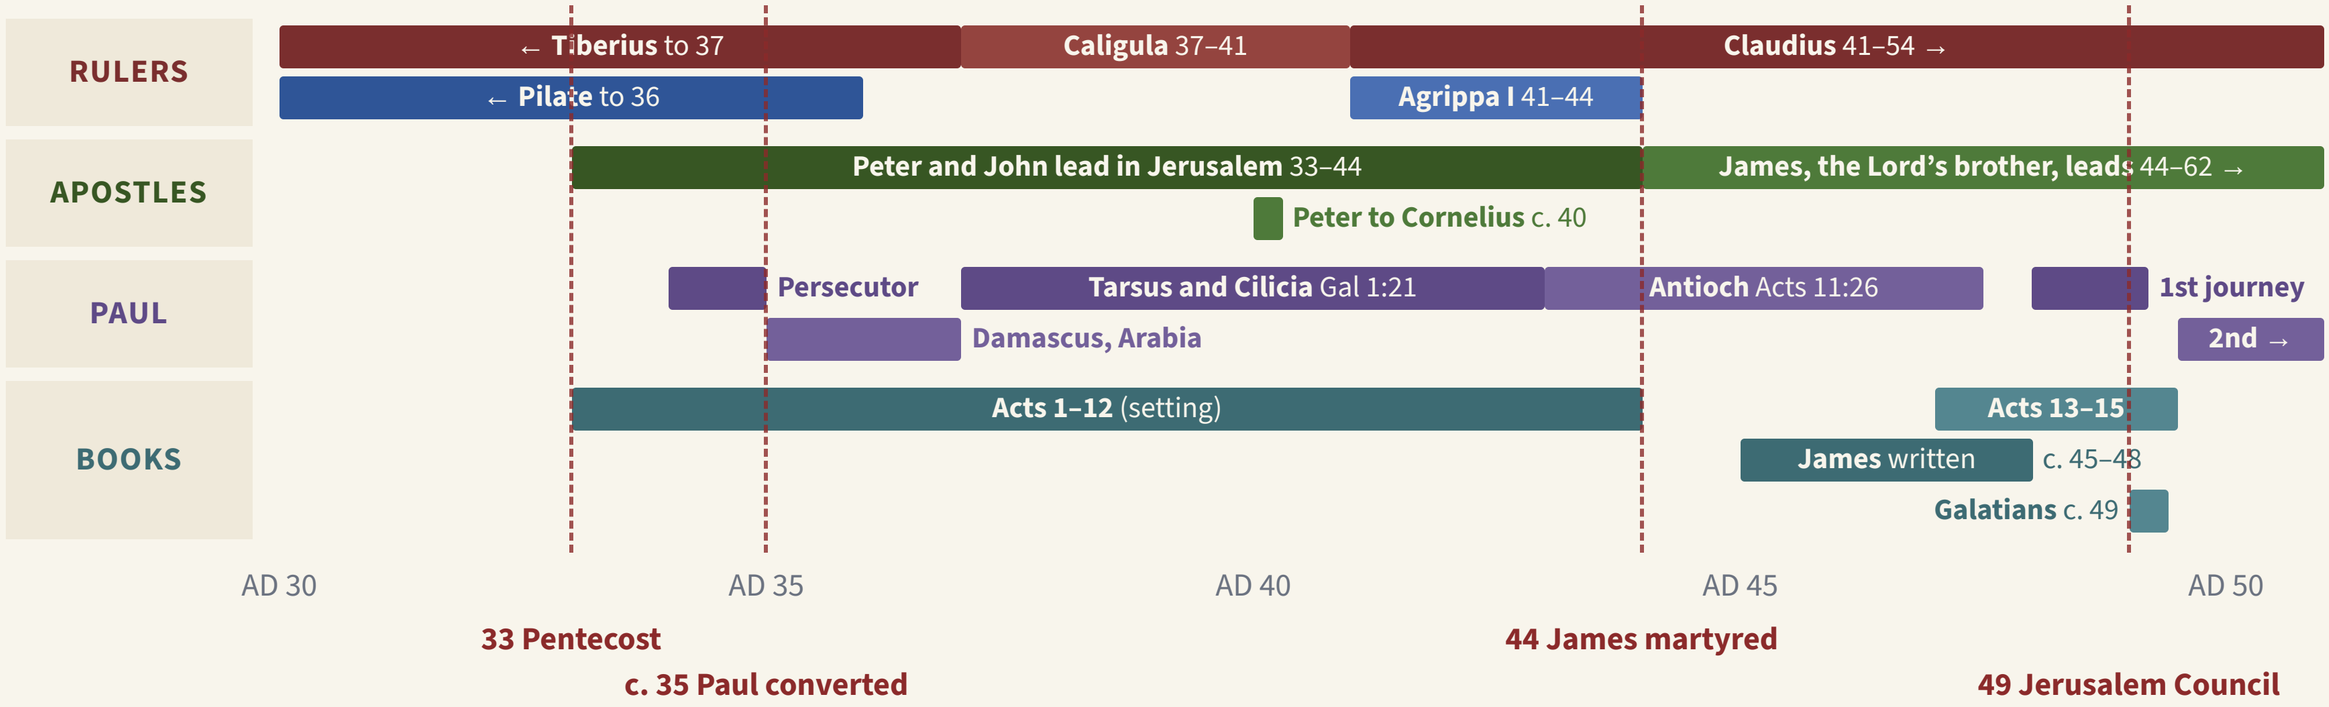

From the births of John and Jesus to the cross, 7 BC–AD 34

The shaded years, AD 28–34, are drawn at a larger scale. Dates follow Hoehner: John began preaching in AD 29 (Luke 3:1–2) and the cross was in AD 33.

The Church Begins

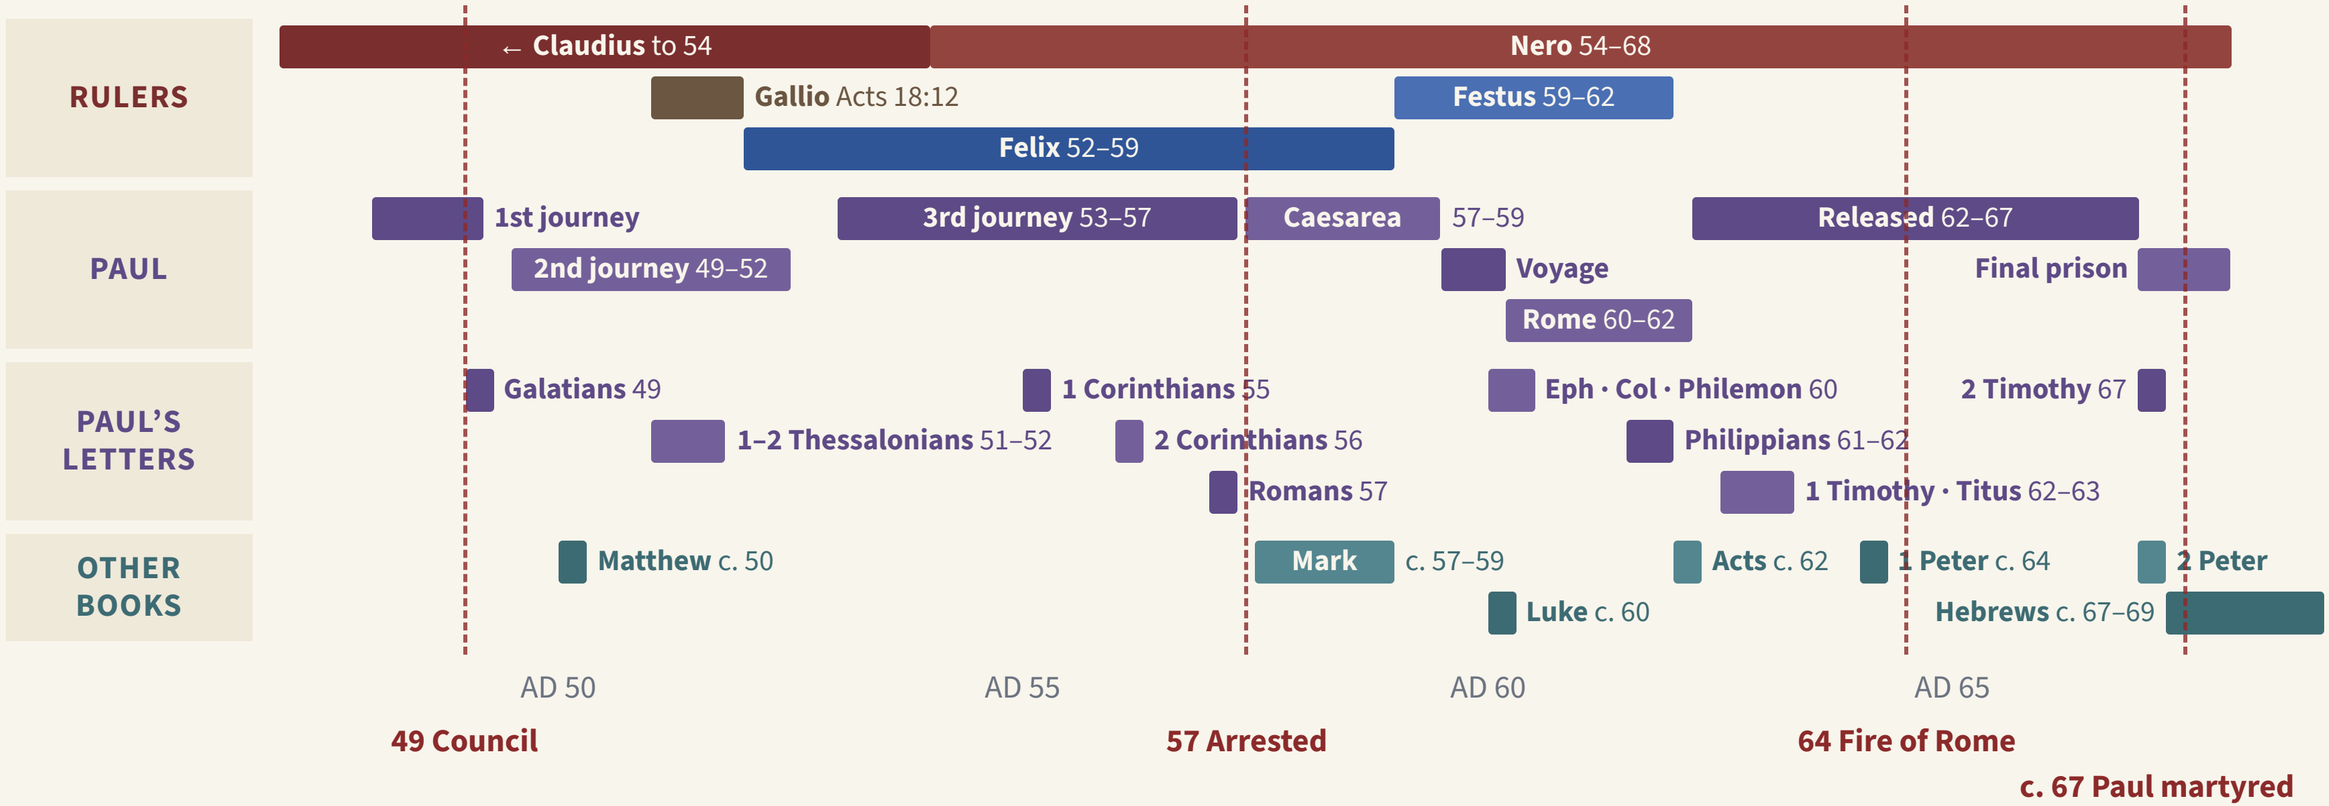

From Pentecost to the Jerusalem Council, AD 30–51

Paul's chronology follows Galatians 1–2 and Acts 9–15; dates before AD 44 are approximate.

Paul’s Journeys and Letters

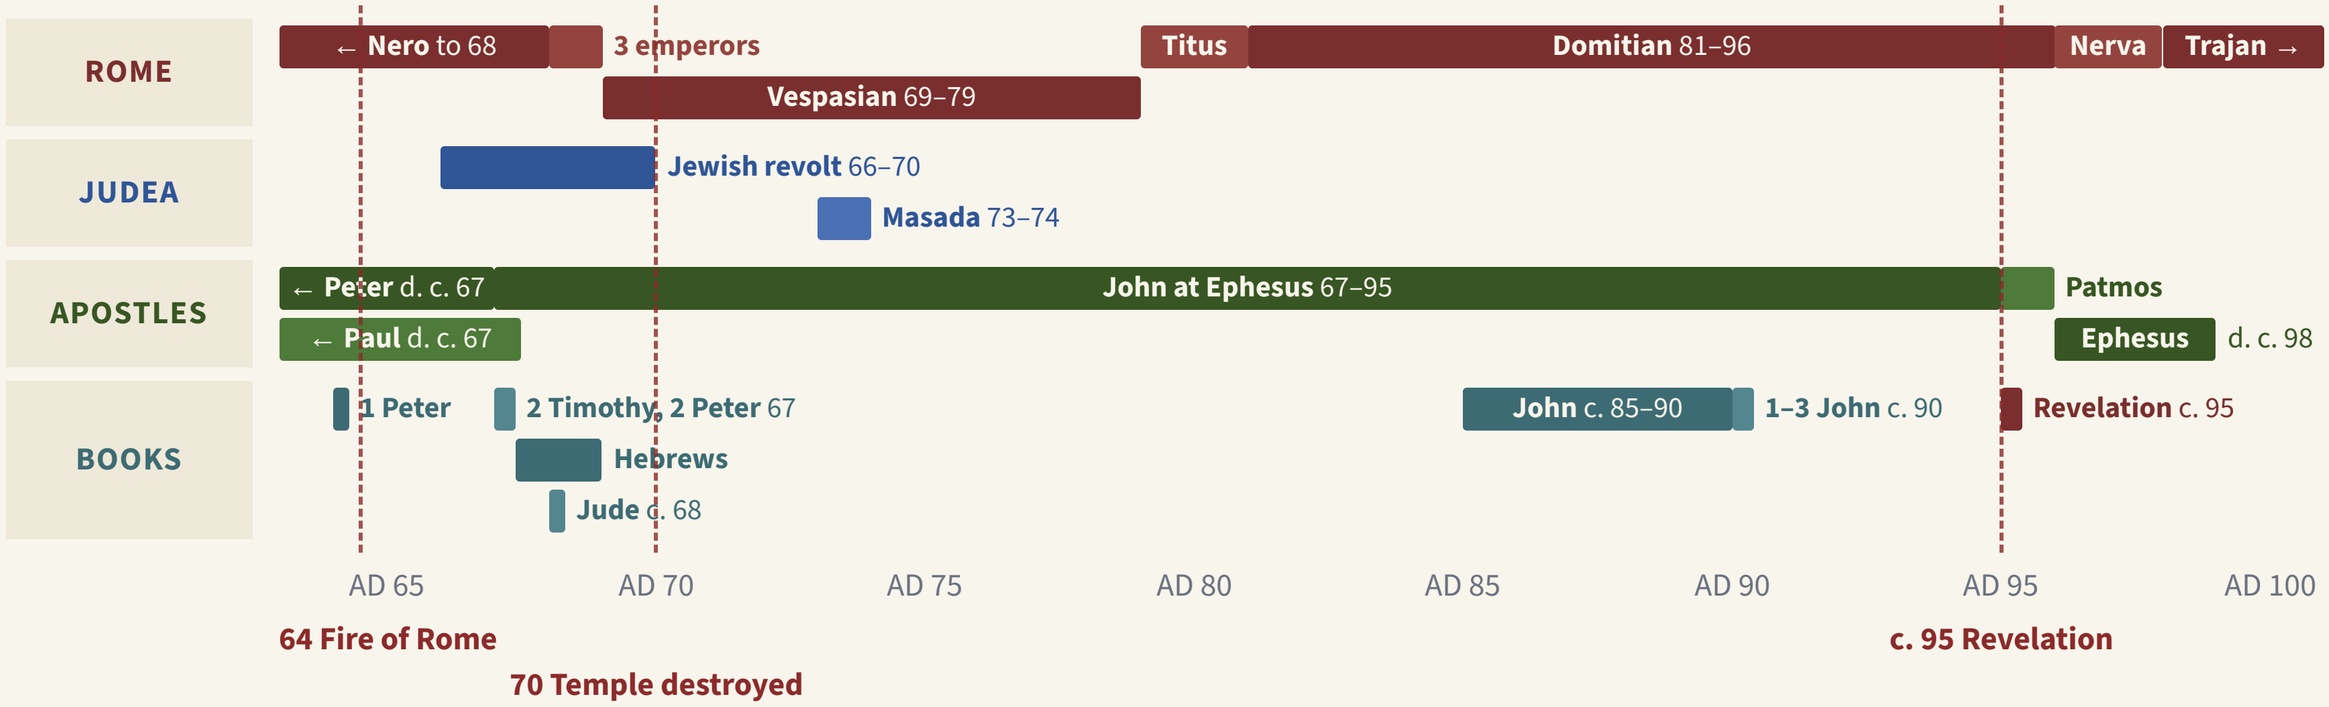

Three journeys, two imprisonments and most of the New Testament, AD 47–69

Book dates are conservative estimates. Gallio’s term in Corinth (Acts 18:12), AD 51–52, anchors Paul’s chronology.

John and the Close of the Canon

The last apostle, the fall of Jerusalem and Revelation, AD 63–101

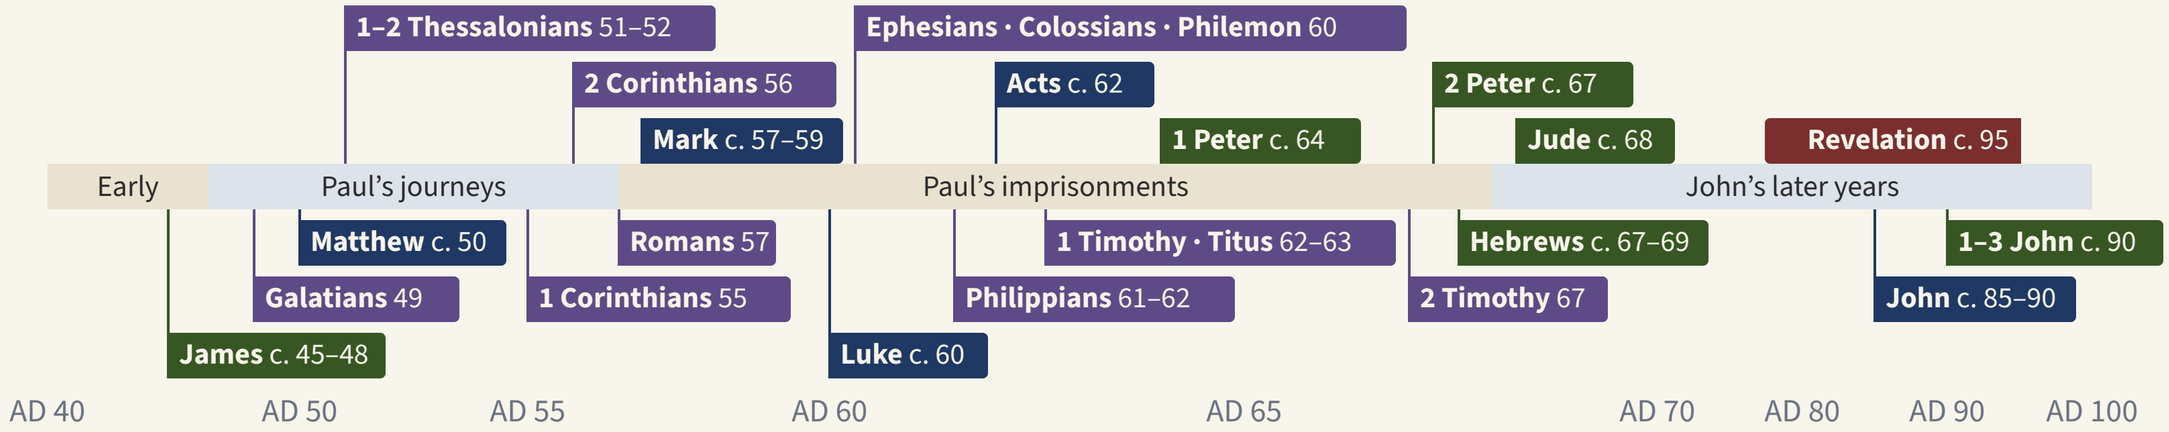

Tradition places John at Ephesus until his death in the reign of Trajan, about AD 98 (Irenaeus).

New Testament Books at a Glance

All 27 books flagged by the date each was written

Gospels and Acts · Paul's letters · General letters · Revelation

The scale is widened for AD 48–70, when most of the New Testament was written. Dates are conservative estimates.